FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Marina Bay Sands kicks into high gear in celebration of the Singapore night race season

Curated hotel packages, fringe activities and dining specials are among the various offerings that will be available across the property in September

SINGAPORE (25 August 2023) – Marina Bay Sands unveils a thrilling world of night race-themed spectacles across the property, inviting motorsport fans and visitors to revel in a series of exclusive offerings that promise unparalleled excitement and entertainment. From driver activations, premium hotel packages to gastronomic specials, the integrated resort (IR) is revving up for yet another unforgettable Singapore night race season. For more information, visit marinabaysands.com/nightrace.

1. Fuel up at Miracle Coffee's race-themed pop-up at ArtScience Museum's lobby

Miracle Racing Team celebrates the spirit of racing with friends and fans of coffee and racing alike

Come 8 to 17 September, the lobby of ArtScience Museum will be transformed into a racing-themed Miracle Coffee pop-up, an exclusive collaboration between Marina Bay Sands and homegrown pop superstar JJ Lin. Themed Miracle Racing Team, the space will be fully decked in a checkered blue design, symbolic of the flag motif in motorsport racing, and will serve as a pitstop to usher in the exhilarating season as Miracle Coffee celebrates the spirit of racing with friends and fans of coffee and racing alike. Fans are invited to experience the action off the racetrack and fuel up on signature beverages such as the Singapore-exclusive Kaya Cloud, and an all-new, race-inspired coffee fizz drink "DRS", and an exclusive dessert menu, all designed specially for Miracle Racing Team. 4. Join the race action with Zhou Guanyu and Yuki Tsunoda

Esteemed racing drivers Zhou Guanyu and Yuki Tsunoda will be involved in exclusive meet and greet opportunities for Marina Bay Sands' loyalty members on 13 September. They are also working with the IR to create themed merchandise available for purchase at the Gift Shop located at the Hotel Tower 2 lobby.

Chinese racing driver Zhou Guanyu is the first-ever, and only racer from his country to compete in Formula 1. The Shanghai-born Formula 1 driver entered the motorsport world at eight and started his racing career in competitive karting. He joined the ranks of single-seater championships at 15, and made his official Formula 1 debut in 2022. Prior to this, he also made a prominent mark in many other motorsport races, including securing multiple wins and pole positions across three Formula 2 race seasons, clinching first place in the 2021 Formula 3 Asian Championship, and finishing second in the 2015 Italian Formula 4 Championship.

Yuki Tsunoda is a Japanese Formula 1 racing driver who embarked on his karting journey at the age of four. He made his debut in the Formula 3 Championship in 2019, and went on to achieve an impressive four pole positions and three victories in the Formula 2 series a year later. His stellar performance led him to finish third overall, earning him the title of Rookie of the Year. Tsunoda achieved a meteoric rise through the ranks and advanced from racing in Formula 4 to securing a Formula 1 seat in just over three years. Now aged 23, this year marks his third season in the sport, with a personal best record of a fourth-place finish.

5. Get set for spectacular parties and exquisite menus at Marina Bay Sands' restaurants

Chef Tetsuya Wakuda and Chef Wolfgang Puck will join forces for the first time to present a gastronomic feast for the senses over lunch on 17 September

*Mott 32 presents four innovative cocktails inspired by the Marina Bay Street Circuit (clockwise from top): Sheares Corner; First Lap; Last Stop; Pit Lane

From 4 to 30 September, race fans can look forward to four innovative cocktails inspired by the Marina Bay Street Circuit at contemporary Chinese restaurant Mott 32 (S$28++ per glass). Leading the lineup is First Lap, a fizzy prosecco featuring a unique blend of sweet and zesty flavours from the beloved Singapore Sling and classic Margarita, complete with an aromatic twist of lemongrass. Next, elevate the classic vodka with the addition of refreshing yuzu and grapefruit juice in Sheares Circuit. Named after the first turn of the race, the cocktail is topped with a sprig of burnt rosemary, creating a perfectly balanced tippie with a touch of smokiness.

Fuel up with a delightful interplay of flavours in Pit Lane, which combines tequila, lime juice and Chartreuse to result in an electrifying orange-hued concoction boasting earthy botanical flavours. Bearing the black and white colours of the checkered flag is Last Stop, an indulgent treat that pairs the creaminess of kahlua, coconut rum and coffee liqueur with heavy cream and fresh milk. Finished with a cloud of whipped cream and cocoa powder, this cocktail is set to round off your night on a euphoric high. For reservations, visit marinabaysands.com/restaurants/mott32.html.

*Cheers to an exhilarating weekend with WAKUDA's classic Negronis

Press Release

Finally, come home to WAKUDA Restaurant & Bar, nestled in the lobby of Marina Bay Sands' Hotel Tower 2. Available at its bar & lounge throughout the weekend, the special racing-themed cocktail titled Cavallino (S$19++ per glass) pays tribute to Ferrari's distinctive prancing horse motif. Beneath this aperitif is the prized Taketsuru pure malt whisky shaken with Campari, sweet vermouth and burnt orange, aged for 30 days in an oak barrel to release gentle notes of oak and vanilla. Keep the glasses flowing post-race weekend with WAKUDA's Negroni week (S$19++ per glass), available at the bar all day from 18 to 24 September. In addition to the classic Negroni comprising a Tanqueray dry gin base shaken with Campari and sweet vermouth, guests can relish a refreshing rendition of the Negroni Highball stirred with yuzu and grapefruit soda. Adventurers can take the tipple up a notch with the Tsokoklate Negroni, which features a Brass Lion Singapore gin base elevated with cacao. For reservations, visit marinabaysands.com/restaurants/wakuda-singapore.html.

7. The party continues at MARQUEE Singapore

World renowned DJs (from L to R) Hardwell and Alan Walker will be performing at MARQUEE Singapore on 15 and 16 September respectively

The night race excitement continues late into the night with two epic afterparties at MARQUEE Singapore on 15 and 16 September. MARQUEE is bringing back two of electronic music industry’s most popular artists – Hardwell and Alan Walker – to present two back-to-back nights of electrifying performances, bringing even more firepower to the roster of festivities at the IR.

Hardwell is set to dominate the mainstage for a rousing performance at MARQUEE on 15 September. The Dutch superstar capped off his storied career in 2013 when he was crowned World’s Number 1 DJ for two consecutive years and is one of the most acclaimed stars in the modern era of electronic music today. He is best known for his headlining acts at the most significant music festivals worldwide, as well as for his ground-breaking album “United We Are”, which secured number two on the iTunes worldwide album chart.

On 16 September, Alan Walker will take centre-stage at MARQUEE to deliver a high-octane set, bringing his synth-driven excellence to the night race afterparty. The British-Norwegian multi-platinum artist has released a string of chart-toppers since his arrival on the music scene in 2015, and has bagged a prestigious Norwegian Grammy for Song of the Year. His highly successful release “Faded” topped music charts globally, and was certified platinum across 14 countries, earning him recognition as one of the most talented DJs in the world.
