Berlin-based DJ Peggy Gou to make debut performance at MARQUEE Singapore to celebrate the official launch of Don Julio 1942

Peggy Gou will take the stage at MARQUEE Singapore on Friday, 23 June

SINGAPORE (16 June 2023) – Berlin-based DJ Peggy Gou is coming back to Singapore to put on a showstopping performance at MARQUEE Singapore on 23 June. Gou will make her debut performance at MARQUEE for the official launch of premium tequila brand Don Julio 1942 in Singapore.

The South Korean DJ, producer and style influencer made her recording debut in 2016. Her releases broke through in the electronic scene, leading her to embark on her first North American tour in 2017 and catapulting her onto the global stage. Recognised for her undeniable talent, Gou attained a massive milestone in her career in 2019 when she was listed in Forbes' Entertainment & Sports 30 under 30 lists as of the Asian leaders, pioneers and entrepreneurs under age 30.

Since her debut, Gou has amassed immense fame from global audiences, and has played at notable clubs and worldwide music festivals such as Coachella, Glastonbury Festival and Primavera Sound. Gou has also collaborated with and performed alongside many industry giants, with her hit song "I Go" clinching a spot on the billboard.

At MARQUEE, revelers can expect Gou to bring her set of high quality mixes woven with a kinetic combination of dark pulsing house and techno, broken beats and abstract compositions, staging a high-energy performance not to be missed by fans and electronic music lovers alike. The Don Julio 1942 Official Launch Party will wrap up in style with an after-party that continues late into the night. DJ Zushan, one of Singapore's top DJs, will keep the party going with his electrifying mix of house, techno and bass soundscapes that will offer an unforgettable after-party experience.
