

ASIA'S GOT TALENT AUDIENCE GUIDELINES

For the comfort & enjoyment for all patrons, staff and event participants, the following guidelines should be taken into consideration and be observed at all time.

- You are participating in a broadcast television recording.

Please note that by accepting the ticket to and attending the Programme titled Asia's Got Talent ("AGT") ("You") consent to adhere to the terms and conditions set out on the AGT ticket, any other guidelines issued by the Producer AGT- FremantleMedia Asia ("Producer") and Marina Bay Sands (MBS).

As we are shooting AGT, You consent and grant the Producer and MBS the right to use your physical likeness in all poses, acts and appearances made by you during the filming of AGT where You are present as part of the audience without participating yourself. The rights granted include the rights to use your name, photographic likeness including still, moving and voice in all media now known and hereafter and commercial use of all kinds in all countries and territories. For the avoidance of doubt references to You shall include all persons under the age of 18 years who accompany you to AGT ("Minors"). Please note that all unaccompanied Minors must in addition to a valid AGT ticket bring the attached consent form duly completed and signed by their Parent/ Guardian. Unaccompanied Minors without the completed attached form may be refused entry to the AGT show. You may be required to present a valid photo ID, such as NRIC, Passport, Driver's License or Employment Pass, at the point of entry.

- Results will be given during the recording before they are made available to the general public. For the enjoyment of all, it is imperative that said results are kept confidential until after the complete initial broadcast of the programme at 10pm (Singapore time)
- Please ensure that you (& your guests) arrive on time. The Marina Bay Sands Theatre foyer will be open from 12:30pm and you should only queue once your entire party has arrived.
- Event doors open at 1:30pm and your seating time is indicated on your ticket. Please be punctual. Latecomers are not guaranteed a seat in the theatre and may be refused entry.
- This is a directed seating event. Seats are determined upon arrival at the venue by the House Manager and ushers. Your cooperation is required to ensure a smooth and pleasant transition to the show.
- The event is oversubscribed in order to ensure a full house. Entrance is subject to venue capacity & served on a first come, first served basis.
- The Producer & MBS have the right to refuse admission to any person.
- Children below 18 years of age must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Patrons attending with babies and young children may be asked to leave the theatre in the event of disturbances.
- Dressy Casual attire is required for the event.

Colourful and festive attire, signage and pom-poms are encouraged. Patrons will be denied entry to the venue if in breach of the applicable code. It is the patron's responsibility to observe the dress code and see that their children abide by the dress code.

Patrons must not wear or display:

- ❖ items which bear offensive, racist, radical, fanatical, inflammatory, obscene, derogatory or provocative slogans, signage or logos
 - ❖ any item for the sole or dominant purpose of ambush marketing
 - ❖ items which bear visible consumer brand logos including and not limited to patches, jackets, T-shirts, badges, clothing, paraphernalia or other items.
- Seat Fillers will occupy empty seats during the recording of the show. If you step out of the theatre to take a break, do not be alarmed if a stranger is seated at your seat; politely let them know that you have returned.
 - In the event of a missing or lost ticket, please proceed to the box office for further instructions. You may be issued a new ticket subject to theatre capacity.
