Veteran singer Hacken Lee returns to Singapore with Sands Live concert

Hong Kong's beloved artiste brings his classic hits and modern tracks to his 17 March concert at Marina Bay Sands

Household name Hacken Lee is the second headliner hosted by Marina Bay Sands as part of its Sands Live concert series

SINGAPORE (15 February 2023) – Famed performer Hacken Lee will be coming to Marina Bay Sands on 17 March to bring fans an unforgettable concert experience.

Lee is the second headliner among a stellar line-up of artistes slated to perform at Marina Bay Sands as part of its Sands Live concert series – a brand-new initiative that brings in top entertainment acts from Asia and beyond to perform across the integrated resort's venues.

From nostalgic ballads to modern tracks, Lee is celebrated as one of Hong Kong's most popular artistes. He has won numerous accolades for his music throughout four decades of his storied career and has been lauded as one of the most highly acclaimed performers in Hong Kong. Apart from his music, the multi-talented performer has starred in many films and dramas, and hosted a series of popular television shows, testament to his talent and showmanship.

The veteran singer last performed in Singapore for his 30th anniversary world tour five years ago. With Singapore as his first concert destination after a long hiatus, audiences can look
