It Takes Two To Tango

Think about how you like your Gin to be paired.
We - naturally - love a classic gin and tonic. However, you should be creative with gin and come up with new and delicious ways to enjoy your favourite spirit!

So be bold and try new combinations.

East Imperial – Singapore

Tonic

Burma - higher on bitterness

Highest level of quinine allowed, Classic style tonic.

Old World - high on bitterness, very dry

Unconventional revival of recipe from 1903. Lowest carbonation & sugar.

Yuzu - citrusy

Goes well with dry and citrus forward gins

Grapefruit – fresh citrus / pomelo

Made with grapefruit and pomelo.

Royal Botanic – floral & citrusy

Floral notes of violets and elderflower, finishing with a burst of grapefruit

Soda Water

Grapefruit - higher on bitterness

Notes of grapefruit juice and peel, touch of cane sugar and subtle carbonation.

J. Gasco – Italy

Dry Bitter tonic – light bitterness

Round flavour with bitter and sweet outline and fine carbonation.

London Essence – UK

Grapefruit & Rosemary tonic – higher on bitterness

Good bitterness with less sugar. Ideal for London dry gins with herbal notes

Bitter orange & Elderflower tonic – light bitterness

Sweeter notes go well with any Floral style of gin
