CONVERSATIONS

What If?

Saturday | 23 Nov | 2pm

Expression Gallery, Level 4

As part of the opening programme of 2219: Futures Imagined, exhibiting artists present from their works and explore the role of art in looking ahead to what the future holds for us. The afternoon of lively, intimate talks brings together practices which engage with speculative art-making, generative design and critical theory, opening up conversations about possible futures and alternative histories.

Admission is free on a first-come, first-served basis, subject to capacity.

ARTSCIENCE IN FOCUS

THE WORLD AROUND THE CORNER

Thursday – Sunday | 5 – 8 Dec | 10am – 7pm

The World Around The Corner looks at the speculative futures of Singapore through the literary lens. Dystopias, utopias and the many evolutions — read about the changes that could be, use technologies that would change the way we live and question ideas of the future.

Admission is free on a first-come, first-served basis, subject to capacity.

ARTSCIENCE ON SCREEN

PLATFORM: THE LAST BIG THING

8 Nov – 1 Dec

Told through the lens of artists, designers, practitioners and filmmakers from around the world, Platform: The Last Big Thing is a film series dedicated to stories about the complex backend of technological platforms that manage our contemporary, interconnected life.

Admission is free on a first-come, first-served basis, subject to capacity.
